

2-Wire BUS System Economy Station (BVI 750-0)

The bus video internal station is a combination of the Bus System in-house telephone, a video bus receiver and a black and white monitor with 4" screen diagonal in the form of a wall surface mounted unit.

Only for use in the Siedle 2-Wire BUS System. Equipped with:

- Door release button, ON time fixed at 3 secs.
- Light ON button
- Call silencing button with LED, lights up when call silencing mode is active.
- Image ON button without prior call, ON time fixed at appr. 45 secs.
- Call volume variable from outside
- Brightness / contrast controller
- Reprogramming of buttons to functions such as internal call, control functions e.g. BSE actuation possible.
- Storey call buttons may be connected
- 10 freely available different call tones can be assigned directly on the unit.
- Power supply as standard from the 2-Wire BUS.
- 4" screen diagonal
- Max. 4 BVI 750-0 units can be switched in parallel; in this case an external 20-30 V DC, max 350 mA power supply is required.
- It is not possible to control the camera from the BVI 750-...
- No video memory module retrofit capability.
- Facility for takeover of door calls can only be programmed via the PBS.

Specifications:

Ambient temperature:	5°C – 40°C
Dimensions:	8.5" x 10" x 2.4"
Protection system :	IP 20